Welcome to NIELS BROCK COPENHAGEN BUSINESS COLLEGE

Welcome to Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College, which is the first and largest business college in Denmark.

Our college is named after one of the greatest Danish merchants of all time. Niels Brock (1731-1802) created a very successful business through trading and exporting clothing fabrics and processed foods to countries such as Norway, Sweden, Poland and Russia. He also decided to set aside funds for establishing a future school of commerce to provide education for young businesspeople.

Niels Brock's business college was established in 1881 and quickly became a well-respected institution of higher education. Our modern institution has a lot more in common with the old merchant than one might think. What drove Niels Brock was strong values and a passion for trade. He understood the significance of education both for the individual, and for society as a whole, and he had a strong international mindset. Educating skilled and honest businesspeople – at home and abroad - remains the paramount objective of our institution.

Today Niels Brock is one of the largest educational institutions in Denmark with four specialist departments offering 20 educational programmes ranging from basic vocational education to bachelor's degree, more than 15,000 full-time and part-time students in Denmark, 500 members of staff. Because of our great history, strong traditional values and our ability to continue developing our educational methods, we are able to attract the best and the most competent members of staff, which helps ensure the personal and professional growth of our students.

A warm welcome to Niels Brock and the BA (Hons) Business Management. I wish you all the very best with your studies.

Kathrine Lassen, Dean of Academic Affairs

2: About the Programme

2.1 Key Information

One of the main advantages of this course is that it gives you the core skills and knowledge to work effectively and confidently within a wide range of business organisations and corporate functions. It also gives you the flexibility to tailor the degree to suit your interests with a broad range of modules available for you to choose in years 2 and 3. Regardless of the modules you choose, all are designed to be highly practical and connected to the business world so that you develop the knowledge and practical skills that companies are looking for in graduates.

We are fortunate that at DMU and NBCBC we have a wealth of experience within our staff who are practically involved in the world of business as well as academically. We all work with businesses in some way, both large and small, private and public, to share knowledge and expertise, and in this way students benefit from contemporary and applied business knowledge.

This degree is an exciting and innovative programme designed to give you exposure to the most contemporaneous topics affecting businesses being 'played out' on the national, international and global stage.

The overarching aim of the Business Management programme is to support students to acquire and develop the knowledge, skills, and behaviours necessary to work effectively, confidently, and responsibly within a wide range of business organisations and corporate functions. It provides students with an excellent grounding in all aspects of business management, incorporating knowledge from a range of disciplines such as accounting, economics, finance, human resource management, marketing, and sustainability. These disciplines and philosophies have been combined within the degree to provide students with a broad and coherent programme that provides an advanced general education for business. While providing students with a background in all areas of business, the programme is designed to enable students to specialise in industry relevant areas.

Business Management graduates should be able to demonstrate a resilient and 'can-do' attitude by taking initiative, accepting responsibility for decisions and actions, and overcoming challenges and unexpected obstacles in a positive, resourceful, and creative way. They can accurately deploy established techniques of analysis and enquiry that they have learned within the business management discipline. They can initiate and carry out projects and frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions - to a problem. They can communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.

You are expected to attend all timetabled sessions. Please note that you will be recorded as absent if your attendance is not recorded at your timetabled activities.

If you are ill for a maximum of three consecutive days, you do not need to contact anyone. However, in cases of illness beyond three consecutive days, please report the illness to the Student Support Unit, ssu@brock.dk. Acceptable evidence is required (Certificate from your Danish GP).

Please note that the Course Calendar offers study breaks according to UK/Danish academic traditions. Students seeking extended periods absence must obtain prior approval from the Student Support Unit, ssu@brock.dk, and approval will be granted only in extenuating circumstances.

Extenuating circumstances are situations that significantly hinder a student's ability to manage their academic responsibilities. These include disabilities or chronic health conditions, severe mental health issues affecting academic performance, legal obligations like court appearances, serious illnesses or injuries necessitating hospitalization or medical treatment, and family emergencies such as sudden illness or death of a close family member. Please note that evidence is required for each of these cases, and it must be provided by qualified professionals such as doctors or specialists.

Also see the DMU General Regulations affecting students. Further details are included within Chapter One: DMU General Regulations: Chapter 1

4.4 Complaints

Your first port of call for advice and support should be your local module leader or senior member of the management team. It is our intention to deal with your concerns and queries as quickly and as efficiently as possible.

Your programme is managed by a Board which is comprised of members of the academic staff team (mainly the programme/subject and module leaders for a particular subject area), staff from DMU, and External Examiners (usually experienced academics from other Universities).

Programme boards meet in two modes:

- Programme Management Boards (PMB) meet to review the management of your programme, and consider issues raised by Student Representatives.

5.2 External Examiners

Each programme has at least one External Examiner who is not part of DMU teaching staff but from another Higher Education institution. Their role is to assure academic standards on the programme and to ensure that students are receiving the best possible learning experience. The External Examiner acts as an independent and impartial adviser. They ensure that awards granted by the university are comparable in standard to those of other higher education institutions, that national subject threshold standards are complied with, and that the treatment of students is equitable and fair.

The External Examiner for this Programme is:

7: Library Services

7.1 Introduction to Partner Library Services

The CBC Library is an academic library open to the students, faculty, and staff at Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College. It is located at Sankt Petri Passage 1, ground floor, and is open Monday through Friday from 07:00 to 19:00.

The library's collection supports the subjects taught at Copenhagen Business College, and includes books, periodicals and digital resources related to those subjects. Students can borrow up to 10 books at a time for a period of one month.

All mandatory titles are available in the library. Most recommended readings are available in the library, or digitally through the De Montfort University Library. They can also be obtained through the Danish public library system.

Access to all resources, including additional databases and helpful information on referencing and academic writing can be found on CBC-DMU library on Moodle page. Besides CBC Library, students and academic staff also have access to De Montfort University Library, which gives access to a wealth of digital resources.

The librarian Urania Sobrinho Beyer (library@nielsbrock.dk) can help students with searching information effectively, finding quality sources of information and referencing. The librarian is available Monday-Friday 9:00-15:00 or by booking a meeting, if outside these hours. Bookings can be made on CBC-DMU Library Moodle page.

7.2 Introduction to DMU Library and Learning Services

The DMU Library at Leicester supports the learning, teaching and research activities of DMU providing high quality resources, learning spaces and learning and academic skills development.

See the dedicated library webpage for partner students that outlines how you can access online information and support: <https://library.dmu.ac.uk/partnerportal>

Resources

Your home institution will provide you with the key resources that you will need for your assignments, such as books, journal articles and other material. However, you will also have access to the physical library at DMU and online books and journals where our licences allow for access.

Accessing online material

Your single sign-on username and password allows access to library and university functions, including: DMU student email account; LearningZone VLE (if applicable); computing services; and e-books, e-journals and databases where our licences permit usage. Your username is your university ID card 'P' number. You will initially login with a default password. We recommend for security reasons that you change this password for future access.

Databases and ebook collections that DMU can provide can be accessed from the relevant partner students libguide: <https://library.dmu.ac.uk/partnerportal>

Learning and Academic Skills online guides

DMU provides a number of online guides and tutorials that can help you with academic skills, such as Critical Thinking, Academic Writing, Referencing, Maths and Statistics. These can be accessed from the Support and Guidance tab of our Partner Students Webpage. Here, you'll also find links to online workshops that you can join or watch a recording.

Contact us

If you need help with accessing information from DMU Leicester, contact us via justask@dmu.ac.uk.

8: Assessment

8.1 How to submit assessments

Turnitin

Turnitin (available via LearningZone) is a text-matching tool used for plagiarism detection to which you will be introduced during your academic study. It is a web-based plagiarism detection tool widely used in UK universities and schools/ colleges. It searches the current and archived internet documents, papers submitted by other students, and identifies any similarities between texts. Refer to Chapter 4, Section 3 of the General Regulations and Procedures Affecting Students for more information on plagiarism. The aim of using this software is to deter plagiarism, rather than to detect it and punish you.

8.2 Assessment criteria and mark descriptors

When marking your work, your tutors use a set of assessment criteria against which each piece of work is assessed. Assessment criteria are usually stated with the assessment brief and are directly related to the learning outcomes for the module.

In assigning a mark to your work, tutors use mark descriptors which are the university's framework for assessment. The final mark awarded to a piece of work will be informed by how it corresponds to these mark descriptors.

Mark descriptors for both undergraduate and postgraduate study can be found in the DMU Assessment and Feedback Policy: Assessment and Feedback Policy

8.3 Assessment feedback

We are committed to ensuring that all students receive appropriate feedback on their assessed work. Feedback can help you improve your future performance. When you receive assignment feedback from your tutor, you will find a summary assessment of your work, which you should read together with the annotations made on the assignment itself.

These comments are intended to help you recognise your own strengths as well as identify any weaknesses. Please take these comments seriously and act upon any suggestions. You should also make an appointment to see the module tutor if you are unclear about written comments made on your work, or if you have any concerns about your progress on a module.

You can expect to receive your mark and feedback within 20 working days of the submission deadline. Where possible, tutors will endeavour to return the work sooner.

You can view the University's full Assessment and Feedback Policy here: DMU Assessment and Feedback Policy

8.4 Deadline extensions, deferrals and leave of absence

It is expected that coursework deadlines will be met at all times. Extensions will only be given in exceptional cases, with prior consent of the module leader. Requests after the assessment date will not be considered unless the most exceptional circumstances are demonstrated. All requests must be supported by documentary evidence (such as doctor's certificates etc.). Extensions are for a maximum of 5 working days.

Late Submission of Assessments

Work submitted prior to deadlines will be accepted and marked as normal.

Policy for the unauthorised late submission of work (Turnitin copy):

Late Submission up to 24 hours passed the deadline for submission	24 hours or more actual days after the submission date
The work will receive a mark of up to a maximum of 40% 	0%

** Please note that this applies to first submissions ONLY. Late submission of a referred piece of work will result in a 0% fail mark.

Requests for longer extensions (deferrals) must be submitted on a 'Undergraduate Programmes. Request for Deferral of Examinations and/or Coursework on Grounds of Extenuating Circumstances'. You can collect these forms from the Dean of Academic Affairs. These requests will be considered by the Faculty Undergraduate Deferrals Panel. Students whose deferral requests are approved will be required to undertake a new piece of work at a time to be determined by the Panel. Requests after the assessment date will not be considered unless the most exceptional circumstances are demonstrated. All requests must be supported by documentary evidence (such as doctor's certificates etc.).

8.5 Failed modules and reassessment opportunities

If you fail a module you may not meet the progression or award requirements for your level. If this is the case and you have sufficient reassessment opportunity, you may be required to retrieve the failure in order to progress or obtain an award. This is known as a reassessment.

Reassessment advice will be sent to you following the release of results. You should seek advice regarding failed modules and reassessment opportunities from the partner institution in the first instance. For more information on reassessment, see Section 2 of the Academic Regulations.

8.6 Academic Integrity and Misconduct

All students are expected to uphold DMU's principles of integrity, honesty and trust in their academic work. The work that you submit for assessment must be entirely your own and you must always acknowledge the use of any other sources in referencing conventions, as set out by the University. We also require that you comply with the University's assessment regulations, including those relating to conduct in examination or test conditions.

The policy is published online: Academic Integrity and Misconduct Policy and describes the definitions of academic misconduct that are broadly categorised into the areas listed below:

- Poor Academic Practice
- Plagiarism
- Contract Cheating and the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Generated Content
- Collusion
- Cheating in Examination or Test Conditions
- Acquiring and submitting work that is not produced by you
- Fabrication and/or falsification of information
- Re-using previously assessed material

Some of these definitions may not be the same as those you experienced at school, college or in countries other than the UK. It is therefore critical that you read the definitions set out in the Policy and ask a member of staff if you have any doubts or questions about their meaning. If you are studying in a partner institution located in a country other than the UK, these definitions still apply to you.

Where a member of staff suspects that there is academic misconduct in your assessment, they will gather initial evidence and will inform the module leader. The module leader may seek advice from an Academic Practice Officer where it is unclear if a potential case of academic misconduct has taken place, and may refer the matter to them for a decision.

The Policy outlines the sources of advice and support available to avoid academic misconduct.

8.7 Referencing

As you research and write your assignments, you will rely on information, ideas and facts of others to support, evidence and illustrate your work. In so doing you must acknowledge these sources by using a system of referencing within your work. Otherwise, you will face the risk of a charge of plagiarism (which is defined by the university as the significant use by a student of other people's work and the submission of it as though it were his or her own).

Referencing can seem complicated at first but, with practice and adherence to the designated referencing style, it is a good habit which can be achieved fairly quickly. There is support to help you to reference effectively.

This programme uses Harvard (Cite Them Right) as the referencing style.

Support and guidance about good academic practice can be found within the referencing tab from the relevant partner student libguide: <https://library.dmu.ac.uk/partnerportal>, including a link to Cite Them Right (a resource providing examples of referencing different types of material). You can also use RefWorks, a tool that enables you to store your references in one place and automatically create a reference list or bibliography at the end of your document.

10: The Student Voice

10.1 Student Representation

The student representation system aims to ensure that all students have the opportunity to provide feedback on their educational experience and is one of the many ways in which the university engages with its students. The role of student representatives is to gather feedback from peers and report this to academic staff through formal and informal meetings.

The student representation system in place is as follows:

Programme feedback meetings are held as formal monthly meetings between student representatives and programme staff at Niels Brock. Minutes of the meeting are placed on the Niels Brock Moodle electronic learning platform and appropriate steps taken to remedy/improve the situation reported. Action sheets are developed and followed up on.

The outcome/status is reported back to student representatives at the next monthly meeting at the very latest.

Feedback to students from staff on their progression is made in accordance with provision given in each particular Module Guide. Special feedback forms may be employed.

Student feedback about modules is obtained using De Montfort University module evaluation forms at the end of the course.

Informal feedback by students to any member of staff is always welcomed as a more immediate method of communicating about the modules or the entire programme of study.

A list of student representatives and their contact details is available from Mitnielsbrock/Moodle.

Further information on student representation is available from De Montfort Students' Union at: <https://www.demontfortsu.com/> or via the Department of Academic Quality at: <http://www.dmu.ac.uk/about-dmu/quality-management-and-policy/academic-quality/student-voice/student-representation.aspx>

10.2 Student surveys

A variety of mechanisms are used to gather student feedback, including questionnaires and surveys.

Surveys include:

- Module and programme surveys
- NB Students' Union monthly feedback
- DMU's annual student survey on academic and well-being issues
- NB's bi-annual well-being survey

11.6 Education for Sustainable Development/Sustainable Development Goals

De Montfort University is committed to making a big difference to the Sustainable Development agenda, by using the United Nations' 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as a focus for our teaching, research and other activities.

That means working to reduce poverty, promoting gender equality, caring for ecosystems, helping create economic prosperity for all, and much more. A major part of the work is embedding sustainability education across the university in taught courses for the benefit of students, staff and our wider community.

Our aim is to put sustainability at the heart of everything that DMU does, inspiring students to 'be the change', both at DMU and in their future careers. Find out more at: <https://esdg.our.dmu.ac.uk/>

At Niels Brock Charlie Mpengula (chmp@niels.brock.dk) is the Head of Sustainability tasked with integrating sustainability and the SDGs into all educations and curricula across programmes. The primary focus is building students' skills to work with sustainability and adding on to students' innovation and entrepreneurship capacity. You will therefore be invited to a number of events such as company presentations, workshops and may also choose to become part of the Niels Brock Copenhagen Business College Advisory Board on Sustainability.

12: Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What should I do if I am ill or absent from university?

If you are ill for a maximum of three consecutive days, you do not need to contact anyone. However, in cases of illness beyond three consecutive days, please report the illness to the Student Support Unit (SSU@brock.dk). On your return, it is recommended that you check your module VLE sites and see your module tutors to discuss any work that you have missed.

Please note that the Course Calendar offers study breaks according to UK/Danish academic traditions, leaving little room for religious, political or festive traditions of other cultures. Students from cultures where weddings, funerals, New Year celebrations, etc. require their attendance for considerable time must contact the Dean of Academic Affairs as soon as possible to make any arrangements required. Students are strongly encouraged to abstain from long absences during the academic year.

How do I notify the University of any changes in my personal details (e.g. term-time address)?

You need to let the student administration (international@brock.dk), know of any changes in your personal/contact details during the year.

What should I do if I can't log into myDMU, DMU student email or other DMU University online systems?

If you have any problems accessing your DMU account, please contact IT support:

itmsservicedesk@dmu.ac.uk

<https://www.dmu.ac.uk/about-dmu/professional-services/information-technology-and-media-services/service-desk.aspx>

For Niels Brock IT systems, Mitnielsbrock/Moodle, NB email account, you need to contact:

Helpdesk@brock.dk

What should I do if I need advice about personal issues?

Your first port of call if you are experiencing personal issues that are having an impact on your studies is your student counsellor (ssu@brock.dk).

What should I do if I am thinking of interrupting my studies?

If you are prevented from continuing your studies for ill-health or another legitimate cause, you must apply for a leave of absence. You will be expected to provide a written explanation of the circumstances, accompanied by evidence to support your request; leave of absence will not be considered without third-party evidence to support it. Requests must be sent to the student administration (international@brock.dk), before the final submission deadline for work on your programme.

What should I do if I am thinking of withdrawing from my studies?

Sometimes students decide that they wish to leave their programme at the University completely. If you are considering withdrawing or transferring, please see your student counsellor to discuss the matter. If you do decide to withdraw, you must inform the University in writing (international@brock.dk). You will be asked to state your last day of attendance. You should also seek advice on the financial implications of withdrawal from study.

It is most important that you do not leave without telling us and that you inform us of your last date of attendance. If you do leave without officially telling us, then your last day of attendance will be the end of the academic year.
